Correction:

In the July 2018 issue of The Lamplighter the following information was incorrect:
- The date for College Night Out and the next Chit, Chat & Chew is Thursday, Aug. 23
- The budget article should have shown the Mass Transit budget as 1% of the overall City budget

We apologize for the errors.

Recycle Often, Recycle Right

Are you recycling correctly? Did you know that the wrong item in your recycling bin could contaminate an entire truckload? Here are the top 12 contaminants to keep OUT of your recycling bin:

DON'T BAG RECYCLABLES

No recyclables in plastic bags. Empty loose recyclables in the bin but leave the plastic bag out.

NO FOOD OR LIQUIDS

Compost these items, or throw them in the trash.

NO ELECTRONICS OR SMALL APPLIANCES

Donate items in good condition (earth911.com), if not schedule a bulky item pickup.

NO TEXTILES, RUGS, CARPET OR BEDDING

These items can be donated if they are in good condition.

NO CORDS, HANGERS, STRING LIGHTS, HOSES

These go in the trash. If recycled they could wrap around equipment and then shut down a facility.

NO PLASTIC BAGS, FILM SHEETING, FILM FLEXIBLE PACKAGING

These could also wrap around equipment. Take plastic bags to a grocer.

NO PAPER NAPKINS, CUPS, PLATES, TISSUE

However, you can recycle cardboard boxes and cardboard tubes!

NO POLYSTYRENE FOAM, FOAM, PLASTIC TO-GO CONTAINERS

These are not recyclable. Throw them in the trash.

NO TIRES, OIL, AUTO PARTS, SCRAP METAL

Contact local scrap recyclers or retail tire stores for options.

NO CONCRETE, WOOD, CONSTRUCTION DEBRIS

Throw into trash or order a bin from Waste Management: 1 (866) 909-4458.

NO YARD WASTE, TREE LIMBS, GRASS

Compost or visit salisburync.gov/Recycle for collection options.

NO NON-RECYCLABLE PLASTIC

Recycle only food and beverage bottles, jugs, and tubes.

Before you throw an item in the recycling bin, check for contaminants. For more visit salisburync.gov/Recycle or call (704) 638-2086.

Residents Can Engage City Council At Chit, Chat & Chew Town Halls

Salisbury City Council and city staff are hosting a series of community town hall meetings titled, Chit, Chat & Chew, in nine areas within Salisbury in 2019.

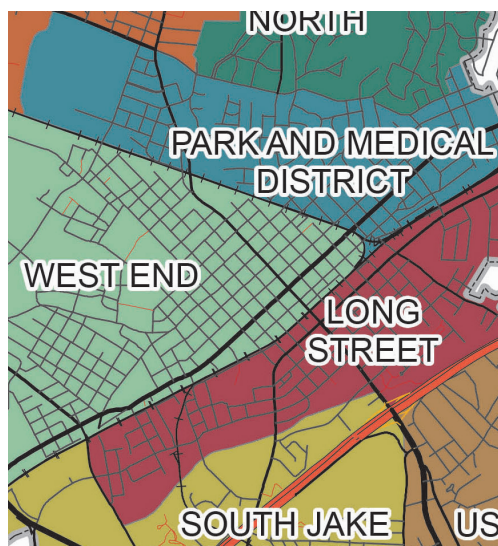

Chit, Chat & Chew grew out of a request from Council members and residents who desired increased engagement beyond the city council meeting public comment period. All topics are welcome, though some answers to questions may require additional follow-up.

To allow residents to have more intimate, targeted discussions with City Council members, a map of nine areas was created, sectioning neighborhoods based upon natural barriers, median income, roadways, and population distribution. In addition, some neighborhoods have different needs and concerns than others, such as code enforcement, leaf collection and road condition concerns. Two Chit, Chat & Chews have already been held: in the Park and Medical and West End areas of the city. Residents throughout the city are welcome at any Chit, Chat & Chew.

In preparation for the discussions, city staff will focus on specific neighborhoods during its weekly Community Engagement Friday walks, gathering community-specific concerns of residents. The town hall will begin after a light dinner is served to attendees.

For more please contact Anne Little, human relations manager at anne.little@salisburync.gov or community@salisburync.gov or call (704) 638-5218.

Community Resource Fair Helps With Back-To-School

The City of Salisbury Community Action Teams will host a community resource fair, including back-to-school support, Saturday, Aug. 25, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at Hurley YMCA, 828 Jake Alexander Blvd W.

The event will feature booths and displays hosted by various community resources and programs that can provide assistance, advice, support and counseling.

"This event brings together many helpful organizations and agencies under one roof to assist families," said Anne Little, Salisbury human relations manager. "It is our goal to inform our residents of the many services available to them throughout the community and partner them with support services. Although the resource fair is one day, we hope the connection between agencies and residents lead to ongoing relationships that last long beyond the duration of the resource fair."

The resource fair will also include a series of short classes for parents, a backpack and school supply giveaway, free food and door prizes.

The event is completely free and open to the public. For more information, contact Little at (704) 638-5218 or email anne.little@salisburync.gov.
